

Wilmington Music School

Wilmington, DE

SC&A's work here included a two-story, 12,000 square foot addition to accommodate new program space and classrooms. A steel-framed and concrete plank system, designed to reduce sound transmission, was a challenge to construct, since studio spaces were not square. Other features included an all new mechanical systems upgrade and sound-proof doors.

